Acknowledgements

Grants from the Centre for Science Development and the Attorneys Fidelity Fund enabled me to complete the research for this book and to acquire some valuable comparative inspiration from abroad. The financial assistance of the Centre for Science Development towards this research is hereby acknowledged. Opinions expressed in this publication and conclusions arrived at, are those of the author and not necessarily to be attributed to the Centre for Science Development.

My wife, Wendy, kindly read the manuscript and made many pertinent comments on the style and flow of the language.

Some years ago when I was lecturing at the University of the Witwatersrand, Richard Cooke of Juta & Co, Ltd, encouraged me to write a succinct student text on delict. For various reasons, I was not free to start work on such a book until 1992—a refreshing year of sabbatical leave. I greatly appreciate Richard's patience and encouragement in this venture.

The efficiency of Juta & Co, Ltd, and in particular Vernon de Vries, has helped to ensure that the book is published early in 1993. Peter Green & Associates cc and the Rustica Press (Pty) Ltd deserve credit for their diligence and the excellent quality of the typesetting and printing. The skilful and expeditious compilation of the Table of Cases by Rod Prodgers of the Rustica Press (Pty) Ltd is gratefully acknowledged.
