

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword

Preface

Acknowledgments

Message from Professor Edward Byrne, Vice Chancellor,
Monash University

Introduction		01
Chapter 1	A New Home in Australia	09
Chapter 2	The Change to Academic Life	28
Chapter 3	The World Opens Out	69
Chapter 4	Analysing the Causes of the Law in Crisis	93
Chapter 5	The American Bicentennial and The World Congress on Equality and Freedom, 1976	118
Chapter 6	Understanding the Developing World and its Problems	137
Chapter 7	A Glimpse of Ancient Lifestyles: The Papua New Guinea Experience	157
Chapter 8	Countering Apartheid: The South African Experience	173
Chapter 9	International Trusteeship: The Nauru Experience	203
Chapter 10	The Frontiers of the Roman Dutch Law: The Lesotho Experience	226

Chapter 11	New Approaches to Human Rights: The Japanese Experience	239
Chapter 12	Exploring the Richness of Comparative Law	263
Chapter 13	Bringing Science and Technology under the Rule of Law	297
Chapter 14	Nuclear Weapons and Scientific Ethics	317
Chapter 15	Religion and the Law	340
Chapter 16	Sri Lanka: A Plea for National Unity	372
Chapter 17	The Australian Years in Retrospect	403
Appendix A	Minute of Appreciation, Faculty of Law, Monash University	420
Appendix B	Conferment of Degree of Doctor of Laws Honoris Causa , Monash University	422
Appendix C	Author's Occasional Address at Graduation Ceremony, Monash University	423
	A Concluding Thought	433
	Index	435