

Contents

Message from the Director/NIPU

About the Contributors

1. Introduction 1
Amal Jayawardane
 2. Functionalist Integration: A Theoretical Perspective 11
George Cooray
 3. Nation Building or Nations Building: A Critical Evaluation of the Theory and Practice of National Integration
Focusing on Sri Lanka 25
A. M. Navaratna-Bandara
 4. Power Sharing and Autonomy Rights of 'Minority'
Communities in Sri Lanka 43
Jayadeva Uyangoda
 5. Re-envisioning Sri Lanka 56
Jayampathy Wickramaratne
 6. Nation-State or Democratic-State?: A Critical View of
Some Discourses on National Integration 61
Laksiri Fernando
- Rejoinders
Jayampathy Wickramaratne & Jayadeva Uyangoda
7. Power-Sharing Plus: The Only Way Forward 92
Jayampathy Wickramaratne
 8. Negotiating Identity-Based Conflicts: 101
Discourse Theoretic Approach
Sumanasiri Liyanage

9. Role of Conflict Resolution, Reconciliation,
Good Governance, and Economic Development for Sustainable Peace in Sri Lanka 115
S. I. Keethaponcalan
10. Achieving Peace and Ethnic Harmony through Civil Society Activism: Multi Track Peace Building and the National Integration Experience of Sri Lanka 139
Sisira Pinnawala
11. National Integration as a Government Project:
the NIPU Experience 160
A.M. Navaratna-Bandara
12. Achieving Sustainable Ethnic Harmony in Sri Lanka from a National Integration Perspective: Sri Lankan Tamil Fears 177
Karthigesu Sivathamby
13. The Historical Tradition of the Mahavamsa
and Ethnic Amity 185
Rev. Hanguranketha Dheerananda
14. Problems of Teaching History in Ethnically
Divided Societies: The Case of Sri Lanka 216
Amal Jayawardane
15. Language Policy: An Overview of the Sri Lankan Experience 229
Senarath Gunasena
16. Semiotic Aspects of the Discourse on
Ethnic Conflict in Sri Lanka 260
Michael Fernando
17. Who is a Good Translator? Beyond Governmentality 265
Sivamohan Sumathy