

Contents

Foreword by Leonard Hoffmann	vii
Preface and Acknowledgements	xi
List of Illustrations	xv
List of Maps	xvi
List of Contributors	xvii

PART I: APPRAISALS

1. 'Dare the Deepening Tide': Lakshman Kadirgamar on the Revolution of our Times	3
Adam Roberts
2. Sketch of the Life of Lakshman Kadirgamar	37
Sarath N. Silva
3. Lakshman Kadirgamar: The Lawyer Turned Politician	41
Sinha Ratnatunga
4. A Duty of Service in an Age of Terror	61
Chris Patten
5. Reflections on a 'Citizen of the World'	69
Karl F. Inderfurth, A. Peter Burleigh and Shaun Donnelly
6. A True South Asian	81
Shivshankar Menon and Nirupama Rao

PART II: DOCUMENTS

1. Report to Amnesty International on my Visit to South Vietnam	89
Colombo, 1 January 1964
2. Why I Decided to Enter Politics	107
Colombo, July 1994
3. Human Rights and Armed Conflict	111
Kotelawala Defence Academy, 19 March 1996

4. The Global Impact of International Terrorism Chatham House, London, 15 April 1998	121
5. The Terrorism Challenge to Democracies Potomac Institute for Policy Studies, Washington DC, 13 September 2000	137
6. Preventing the Recurrence of Harm to War-affected Children Winnipeg, 16 September 2000	151
7. Address to UN General Assembly New York, 18 September 2000	157
8. The Seven Sisters of South Asia: Where are they Going? Tenth Lal Bahadur Shastri Memorial Lecture, New Delhi, 11 January 2003	169
9. Flaws in the 2002 Ceasefire Agreement Speech from the opposition, Parliament, Colombo, 8 May 2003	193
10. Third World Democracy in Action: The Sri Lanka Experience Brookings Institution, Washington DC, 12 May 2004	207
11. The Peaceful Ascendancy of China: A South Asian Perspective China Institute of International Studies, Beijing, 28 December 2004	223
Notes	237
Index	255