

C O N T E N T S

Introduction	7
Foreword	9
Part One: THE ROOTS	11
The Historical Foundations of the Declaration	12
International Action	13
Humanitarian Intervention	13
International Treaties	15
International Social and Labor Legislation	17
Between the Two Great Wars—The Covenant of the League of Nations	19
The Protection of Minorities	20
The International Labor Organization	22
The Enthronement of Human Rights as a Peace Aim of World War II	24
The Dumbarton Oaks Proposals	25
The Charter of the United Nations, San Francisco, 1945	26
Crimes Against Humanity and Genocide	29
Human Rights in the Peace Treaties of 1947	30
The International Bill of Rights	31
Part Two: THE GROWTH	34
The Universal Declaration of Human Rights— 1948 to 1963	34
The Declaration as a Resolution of the General Assembly	35
The Development Since 1948	37
The Declaration as a Yardstick of the Observance of Human Rights	38
The Declaration and International Conventions	40
The Penetration of the Declaration into Conventional International Law	46
The Declaration in Africa	50
The Declaration in Recent Constitutions Outside Africa	53
The Dichotomy of Convention v. Recommendation	54
The Post-1948 Declarations	59

The Declaration Against Colonialism of 1960	66
Concluding Observations	73
Appendix I: Bibliographical Note	75
Appendix II: Documents	78
Appendix III: List of Documents not Reproduced	96