

Contents

Introduction: About This Report	1
List of Abbreviations	9
Executive Summary	13
Part 1: The Argument	19
Recommendations	67
Part 2: Analysis and Evidence	81
1 Overview: The Case for Action	83
1.1 Why Africa cannot wait	84
1.2 What needs to be done: a big push to break vicious circles	85
1.3 Working in partnership	88
1.3.1 Africa in the lead: responsibilities and priorities	88
1.3.2 The world community: responsibilities and priorities	89
1.3.3 A changing of ways	93
1.4 A plan of action to support Africa's resurgence	95
Summary of key messages	96
2 Lost Decades: Legacy and Causes	101
2.1 The meaning of poverty	101
2.2 What has been happening to poverty?	102
2.3 The causes	105
2.3.1 Political causes	106
2.3.2 Structural causes	108
2.3.3 Environmental and technological causes	110
2.3.4 Human causes	111
2.4 Africa's relationship with the developed world	113
2.5 Conclusion	117
Annex: Millennium Development Goals to be achieved by 2015	119
3 Through African Eyes: Culture	121
3.1 The Commission process	122
3.2 Perspectives on African development	122
3.3 Culture and change	123
3.4 Misunderstandings about Africa	125
3.4.1 The inheritance of history	125
3.4.2 African diversity	126
3.4.3 Africa's invisible networks	126
3.4.4 The growing importance of religious networks	127
3.5 Cultural heritage	129
3.6 Culture and development policy	130

4	Getting Systems Right: Governance and Capacity-Building	133
4.1	Pan-African organisations	135
4.2	Capacity to deliver	135
4.2.1	Professional skills and leadership	137
4.2.2	Incentives	139
4.2.3	Equipment and infrastructure, including ICT	140
4.2.4	Monitoring of capacity-building	140
4.3	Accountability	141
4.3.1	Participation	141
4.3.2	Constitutional structures, parliaments and political processes	142
4.3.3	Media	143
4.3.4	The justice system	144
4.3.5	Local government, traditional leaders, business and civil society and trade unions	144
4.4	Transparency	145
4.4.1	Natural resources revenue management: the extractive industries	145
4.4.2	Other natural resource sectors	147
4.4.3	The role of the International Financial Institutions	149
4.5	Corruption	149
4.5.1	Corruption: procurement	150
4.5.2	Export Credit Agencies	151
4.5.3	Stolen assets	151
4.6	Strengthening the quality and use of data	154
4.7	Conclusion	154
	Recommendations on governance and capacity-building	155
5	The Need for Peace and Security	157
5.1	The case for prevention	158
5.2	Building peaceful African societies	160
5.2.1	Making aid better at reducing violent conflict and promoting security	162
5.2.2	Arms control	163
5.2.3	Management of natural resources	164
5.2.4	Corporate activity in conflict areas	165
5.3	Building regional and global capacity to prevent and resolve violent conflict: early warning, mediation and peacekeeping	166
5.3.1	External support to the African peace and security architecture	169
5.3.2	Clearer roles and responsibilities	170
5.3.3	Strengthening the capacity of the UN to prevent and resolve violent conflict	170
5.4	Building peace after the fighting stops	171
5.4.1	Planning and co-ordination	172
5.4.2	Financing and post-conflict peacebuilding	172
5.5	Conclusion	173
	Recommendations on peace and security	174
	Annex 1: Recommendation on the sanctions regime, Article VIII	176
	Annex 2: Recommendation on the Peacebuilding Commission and Peace Support Office, Article XV	177

6	Leaving No-One Out: Investing in People	179
6.1	Education and skills for contemporary Africa	181
	6.1.1 Time to deliver	181
6.2	Eliminating preventable diseases	188
	6.2.1 What is working?	189
	6.2.2 Priorities for delivering health care	190
	6.2.3 Doing business differently	194
	6.2.4 Integrating responses to the burden of disease	197
6.3	Expanding water supply and sanitation	199
6.4	HIV and AIDS: delivering on the promises	201
	6.4.1 The nature of the pandemic	202
	6.4.2 Ineffective responses to AIDS	204
	6.4.3 A better way	205
6.5	Tackling exclusion and vulnerability	207
	6.5.1 Who are excluded and who are vulnerable?	208
	6.5.2 Social protection interventions	209
	6.5.3 Building strategies against exclusion and vulnerability	210
6.6	Conclusion	212
	Recommendations on leaving no-one out	215
7	Going for Growth and Poverty Reduction	219
7.1	Introduction	220
7.2	The drivers of growth	223
	7.2.1 Governance and geography: the fundamental drivers of growth	223
	7.2.2 Country growth strategies	224
	7.2.3 Key challenges	227
	7.2.3.1 The economic impact of HIV and AIDS	227
	7.2.3.2 Urban development	227
7.3	Policies for growth	228
	7.3.1 The investment climate	229
	7.3.2 Infrastructure	233
	7.3.3 Agriculture and rural development	237
7.4	Policies for participation in growth	239
	7.4.1 Small enterprise development	239
	7.4.2 Employment promotion	242
	7.4.3 What business should do	245
7.5	Environmental sustainability	248
	Recommendations on growth and poverty reduction	251
	Annex: Options for administering additional infrastructure funds	253

8	More Trade and Fairer Trade	255
8.1	Introduction: The potential benefits of trade for Africa	255
8.2	Increasing Africa's capacity to trade	259
8.2.1	Enabling environment for the private sector	260
8.2.2	Infrastructure	260
8.2.3	Reducing Africa's trade barriers	260
8.2.4	Reducing commodity dependency	271
8.3	Opportunities for trade	276
8.3.1	Agriculture in the Doha Development Agenda	279
8.3.2	Making preferential access work for sub-Saharan Africa	290
8.3.3	Mechanisms to support trade adjustment and address preference erosion	294
8.3.4	Making trade policy consistent with aid policy	296
	Recommendations on trade	298
9	Where Will the Money Come From: Resources	301
9.1	Introduction	302
9.2	Can Africa finance a big push without extra aid?	302
9.3	How can extra aid be most effective?	307
9.3.1	Aid: the record of achievement	307
9.3.2	Aid: the scope for enhanced effectiveness	311
9.3.3	Improving the quality of aid	313
9.3.4	Aid: so how much more?	316
9.3.5	What assurance is there that the extra aid will be used productively?	320
9.3.6	Are public financial management systems improving, and are international efforts in supporting these getting better?	321
9.3.7	What would the extra aid be used for, and to achieve what?	324
9.4	How does debt relief fit in?	328
9.5	Paying for extra aid	330
9.5.1	The global requirements for aid	330
9.5.2	Burden-sharing through meeting common norms	332
9.5.3	Reallocating aid to Africa	332
9.5.4	Raising finance for development from international levies and other mechanisms	332
9.5.5	Frontloading aid by using capital markets	333
	Recommendations on resources	336
	Annex 1: Scaling Up Aid to Ghana	339
	Annex 2: Scaling Up Aid to Ethiopia	343
	Annex 3: Scaling Up Aid to Mali	346
	Annex 4: Allocating Development Assistance for Poverty Reduction	350
	Annex 5: Detailed Breakdown of the Commission's Recommendations	352
	Annex 6: The Productive Absorption of Additional Aid to Africa	354
	Annex 7: Draft Principles for Good International Engagement in Fragile States	363
	Annex 8: Botswana Graduating From Aid	365
	Annex 9: Possible Actions for Further Debt Relief	367

10	Making it Happen	369
10.1	Introduction: commitment and delivery	369
10.2	African leadership and world partnership	370
10.3	Clarity of action and basis in evidence	371
10.4	Institutions for delivery	372
	10.4.1    Multilateral African institutions	372
	10.4.2    The global institutions	373
10.5	A stronger African voice in the multilateral organisations	379
10.6	Scrutiny, measurement and accountability	381
10.7	Political will	382
	Recommendations on how to make all this happen	385
	Glossary	387
	Notes and References	399